

Sample RIC Hardware and Avera Visibility Software Installation

Harbour Island, a gated community in Florida, has installed an IDmicro system that keeps track of residents and visitors entering the community, and automates the authorization and gate opening process. The two main points of access to the community, including several zones with gate arms at each, are networked in Avera. Reports and asset management are easily accessible through Avera's xml web interface.

1019 Pacific Avenue
13th Floor
Tacoma, WA 98402

tel 253.396.1479
fax 253.396.1478